

How to solve the problem:

Synchronisation in a relay race happens, when the beam has to be handed over to the next. In the SFC this is modelled with the synchronisation bar. After handover the process splits again into two processes, i.e. each athlete goes his own way.